FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

One thousand
Washington -- ~~Eight hundred~~ B'nai B'rith Women delegates from the United States, Canada, Israel, Europe and South America will hold their International Biennial Convention at the Shoreham Americana Hotel in Washington, D. C. March 7-10.

The convention theme, "So Proudly We Hail," will be carried out through workshops, programs and speakers exploring the spirit of service, the spirit of woman and the spirit of continuity.

The convention will open Sunday evening, March 7, with a keynote address by Dore Schary, honorary national chairman of the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League. A distinguished playwright, producer and humanitarian, Schary will speak on "The Jewish Experience in America".

On Monday, March 8, a luncheon on "The Spirit of Service" will feature Dr. Daniel Thursz, dean of the School of Social Work and Community Planning at the University of Maryland.

To enable them to better serve their communities, BBW delegates will hear stimulating speakers at four workshops on "Operation Independence" (programs to serve older adults); "New Flight Patterns: Operation Stork" (maternal and infant advocacy); "The Jewish Woman: Here and Now," and "Adolescent Prejudice."

On Tuesday, March 9, delegates will attend a reception at the White House where they will present a custom-made set of three Bicentennial Dolls to First Lady Betty Ford. as a gift to the American people. The Bicentennial Trio was recently added to BBW's unique Dolls for Democracy collection in honor of the nation's Bicentennial.

At a banquet Tuesday evening, Mrs. Louis Kash of Los Angeles will be installed as president of B'nai B'rith Women. Mrs. Kash, a prominent BBW and community leader, is recipient of former Prime Minister Golda Meir's medal for outstanding service to the State of Israel. The banquet will also feature "The Spirit of Woman," an original production on the history of BBW by the internationally famous National Players of Catholic University.

At a closing luncheon on "The Spirit of Continuity," the women will hear Gerda Weissman Klein relate her experience as a victim of the Holocaust. Yecheskiel Cohen, director of the BBW Children's Home and Group House in Israel, centers for the treatment of emotionally disturbed boys, will also address the delegates. Members of the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization will take part in a presentation on the continuance of the Jewish spirit.

BBW delegates, meeting in plenary sessions, will set policy for the 150,000-member international Jewish women's service organization and will take action on a number of national and international issues. Also participating in the convention will be David Blumberg, president of B'nai B'rith International; Rabbi Benjamin Kahn, executive vice president; Shari Miller, B'nai B'rith Girls International N'siah, and Joel Kaplan, AZA Grand Aleph Godol. Outgoing BBW president is Mrs. Milton T. Smith of Austin, Tex. Mrs. David Blumoff of Creve Coeur, Mo. is convention chairman.
