VISITORS' SERVICE CENTERS

Visitors' Centers have been established at the Kavalierhaus Hotel on the grounds of the Schloss Klessheim (next to the dining room on the ground floor of the Kavalierhaus) and at the Oesterreichischer Hof Hotel (Rooms 130 and 132). Ask your White House switchboard operator for the "Kavalierhaus Visitors' Center" or the "OH Visitors' Center".

HOURS OF OPERATION

Saturday, May 31 - 12:00 noon - 12:00 midnight (OH only)

Sunday, June 1 - 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 midnight

Monday, June 2 - 7:00 a.m. - 12:00 midnight

Tuesday, June 3 - 4:30 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. (Kavalierhaus)
4:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon (Oesterreichischer Hof)

CURRENCY EXCHANGE

Currency exchange facilities are available in the Visitors' Service Centers. US dollars may be exchanged for schillings or schillings for dollars during the hours that the Visitors' Service Centers are open. The dollar-schilling exchange rate fluctuates daily; however, the exchange rate at the Visitors' Service Centers is 16.50 schillings to US 1 dollar for the duration of the visit. Money also may be exchanged at banks and hotels. The exchange services at the Visitors' Service Centers may only deal in US dollars and schillings. Conversions of other currencies should be made at banks or hotels. A currency conversion table is on the last page of this booklet.

TRANSPORTATION/MOTOR POOL

Dispatchers are on duty at the Kavalierhaus (just to the right as you enter) and at the Oesterreichischer Hof in the large room to the left as you enter, past the elevators. Ask your switchboard operator for the "Kavalier Dispatcher" or the "OH Dispatcher". From outside dial 45551 and ask for the appropriate dispatcher.

HISTORIC NOTES ON SITES WHERE TALKS WILL BE HELD

KLESSHEIM PALACE (Schloss Klessheim)

Klessheim Palace lies approximately two miles northwest of Salzburg. The site of the present day Palace has been occupied from the late middle ages onward. The baroque palace was originally built for Archbishop Johann Ernst Graf Thun by Fischer von Erlach, the famous baroque architect, in 1700-09. The Palace was extensively restored in 1940-41.

Klessheim Palace was originally the property of the Prince Archbishops of Salzburg. After the secularisation it was transferred to the secular princes governing the country and thus finally became the property of the Austrian Emperor at the time of the Congress of Vienna (1816). Emperor Francis Josef I gave it to his brother, Archduke Ludwig Viktor, and decreed it to be the latter's residence. In 1921 the Province of Salzburg acquired it from the heirs of Archduke Ludwig Viktor.

Nowadays the Palace is used to lodge distinguished guests and for seminars, congresses, and ceremonial occasions. The park contains a golf course, a swimming pool and the "Hoyoshaus", a garden pavilion built by Fischer von Erlach in 1694. The "Kavalierhaus", built in 1880 on the castle grounds for Archduke Ludwig Viktor, was converted into a hotel in 1956.

RESIDENZ

The Residenz was built in the 16th century and housed the Salzburg Archbishops and their courts when it became more comfortable to stay in the city rather than on the high fortress. With its extensive courtyard, where small operas and concerts are performed during the Salzburg festival, as well as with its beautifully decorated imperial rooms, the Residenz serves today for representational functions hosted by the Governor of the Province of Salzburg. There are nearly 180 rooms in the Residenz including art galleries, -exhibit rooms, cultural institutes, and the offices of the Chancellor of the University. Principal rooms are the Karabinierisaal (ceiling painting by Rottmayer); conference room, where Mozart played; antechamber; audience chamber with Flemish tapestries; the private apartments; picture gallery and the throne room, followed by the white stucco room with silver mirrors, the green room, and the Kaisersaal with portraits of the Hapsburg emperors from Rudolf IV (1339-1365) to Karl VI the father of Maria Theresa and the last male heir of direct descent. A passage lined with paintings of the flood leads through a partially hidden door directly into the Franciscan Church.

SCHLOSS FUSCHL

Schloss Fuschl, now an elegant hotel is situated about 12 miles east of Salzburg, in the lovely countryside overlooking the lake of Fuschl. The original castle, a late gothic tower, was built in 1450 by the Salzburg Archbishops as a hunting lodge. It was in the possession of the Church until 1830, when it was transferred to private ownership. The tower was enlarged and converted into a hotel in 1948 with the help of Marshall Plan funds. At the far end of the lake is the village of Fuschl with a pleasant natural bathing beach.

USEFUL PHRASES

It is unlikely that you will encounter any language difficulties in Salzburg. Since English is widely understood and spoken in the city's hotels, restaurants and main shops, knowledge of German is by no means imperative. However, a few words and phrases may be helpful just in case.

Mrs. Anwar Sadat Breaks With Tradition Again

By Harry Dunphy

CAIRO, Feb. 17 (AP).—Wives of Arab heads of state usually do not make official visits on their own. But Egypt's First Lady is going to West Germany this week, tomorrow through home to find that he already has eaten."

Mrs. Sadat described her husband, who was 30 and divorced when she met him in Suez on her 15th birthday, as a quiet man, "very deep, very steady and honest with himself and others.

MEMORANDUM

TO: All Members of the President's Party

FROM: Red Cavaney, White House Advance

Security

The Corrazzieri, the security force for the Quirinale Palace in Rome, have extremely strict and restrictive control on personal movement throughout any part of the Palace. This control is reinforced by many years of tradition and hundreds of state visits, where absolute control of movement has been maintained.

Several rules will be in effect during the entire time of the party's visit to the Quirinale Palace:

1. No individual personal movements will be allowed. Movements being made as a part of an official ceremony, i. e. the arrival ceremony in the Courtyard, the arrival statements in the Garden Terrace, the movements to and from meetings and the State Luncheon, all must be made in strict accordance with the established schedule. No other personal movements will be allowed by any individual by the Corrazzieri. Identification or explanation will not be requested, but the individual making unauthorized movement will be removed from the area and brought to the Security Office. There have been no authorized exceptions to this rule.
2. Movements by the travelling party and staff within the Quirinale Palace Presidential apartment are authorized and acceptable. The other movements inside Quirinale Palace will be made in accordance with the established schedule, or only when escorted by Italian Protocol Quirinale Officials and White House Advance Staff. Again, no other movements throughout the Palace will be allowed.

Attire

As is indicated in the Official Schedule for the visit to the Vatican, personal attire is also described by the customs and tradition of Quirinale Palace. Proper attire at all times during the Quirinale Palace visit should be: dark suits, preferably white shirts and preferably dark ties.

Proper attire for the female members of the Party: Discreet length, day-time luncheon attire - no specific color requirement.

Schedule

Updated schedule information, including those attending the State luncheon at Quirinale Palace will be distributed onboard your aircraft.

Papal Audience

Due to some Papal concerns over the size of the U.S. Party, only members of the U.S. Official Party will be allowed inside the Papal Library to participate in the meeting of the Pope and the President.
