Mr. Michael Duval
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mike:

Enclosed is a very quick review of organizations, special interest groups and individuals who, in my opinion, could support the President either from an economic, ethnic or patriotic or personal appeal.

I can elaborate easily on any of them, but we need to work quickly but properly.

One quick thought. The President was and is a great athlete. This bunbling business is a bunch of junk. He could easily establish a public rapport with outstanding athletes from any field. In particular, football which is our greatest spectator sport. This has not been done other than the All-Star Game (which was great).

Please give me a call and let's discuss.

Many thanks.

Personal regards.

Sincerely,

HC
Henry C. Cashen II
