

April 12, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced his intention to nominate George C. Pratt, of Syosset, New York, to be a United States District Judge for the Eastern District of New York. He will succeed Anthony J. Travia who resigned effective November 30, 1974.

Mr. Pratt has been with the law firm of Farrell, Fritz, Pratt, Caemerer and Cleary in Williston Park, New York since 1967.

A biographical sketch is attached.

#

GEORGE C. PRATT

Born: May 22, 1928 Corning, New York

Legal Residence: New York

Marital Status: Married Wife--Carol June Hoffman
4 children

Education: 1946-1950 Yale University, B.A. degree
1950-1953 Yale Law School
J.D. cum laude

Bar: 1953 New York

Experience: 1953-1955 Clerk for Charles W. Froessel,
Associate Judge of New York State
Court of Appeals
1955-1960 Sprague & Stern
Mineola, New York
1960-1965 Andromidas & Pratt
1965-1967 Andromidas, McKnight, Pratt,
Caemmerer & Pitcher
1967 to present Farrell, Fritz, Pratt, Caemmerer
& Cleary, P.C.
Williston Park, New York

Office: 374 Hillside Avenue
Williston Park, New York 11596