Dear Mr. President,

As I sit here and watch the election returns, I have one large thought - how fortunate this country has been to have you for our President. You have done a beautiful job in the Oval office.

Not only has the country been fortunate but I feel I have been most fortunate. I have learned and shared.

No matter what tomorrow brings -

I say to you, Mr. President

Many thanks!

Sincerely,

Cherie Cannon

THE SECRETARY FOR STATE

Dear Mr. President,

On 6 Oct. 1949 and with the election retained. I have one large thought - how fortunate the country has been to have you for our President. You have done a wonderful job in the Coolidge office.

Not only has the country been fortunate but I feel sure that your future work behind our shield

is with us in the future to you, Mr. President

Very truly,
Lamar M. Campbell
