Dear President Ford

B-94
Dear Joe,

A few years ago I wrote you a note of congratulations and best wishes on becoming President.
Thanks for the Xmas cards since then.

AH
I was rooting for you in the last election. You carried Lancaster County by a great margin - but there were too many other counties against us.
It reminded me of 1939 when I played for Varsity against Army at West Point. We played them tough for $7\frac{1}{2}$ - but there were too many of them and they racked us in the last qtr.

I watched you on TV Nov. 7 at noontime - it reminded me of the locker room following a losing critical game.

I think you have been great as President and I feel proud to have known you - if only for a few months at Chapel Hill in 1942.
By the way - have you seen Raa Baa Black Sheep on TV? At least 2 1st Battalion boys were in that squadron - and the role of "Guttermann" just has to be Bill Deegan (who else would have a fight with a C.O.?).

Best wishes for the years ahead

Sincerely, Joe Glass
