Dear Mr. President -

What a great campaign you waged. But what a great cause you ventured to this country by standing up on our corner after Watergate.

It is sad that the country will not have your continued leadership, but I am sure to find the vision you were given by the people of this land as you campaigned without stint among them.

You have much more to do for America and millions of us will support you in whatever you choose as the best way to continue.

Thank you for all you have done for America, and the privilege I had of seeing you for a while.

Yours sincerely -
John Labor

most given by the people of this land as you can perhaps recall not about coming there.

You have much more to do
best way to continue.

the privilege of having known you is a privilege.

Yours sincerely,
John Labor
