Dear Mr. President:

Tuesday's vote demonstrated that the American people are not yet ready to appreciate or even understand fully the kind of solid, intelligent, and careful leadership you have been providing us since you took office. This is the saddest aspect of this Bicentennial year.

As your friends, we share your pain and frustration for having come so close. As Americans, we are grateful for and proud of the leadership you have given this country when it was most needed. But how you will be missed...!

Sincerely,

William E. Timmons
