THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN. . .

Dear Mr. President:

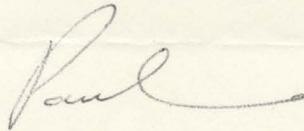

By the hand of our mutual friend, Garry Brown, I am taking the liberty of conveying Terry's and my personal respects to you and your family, and our best wishes for a very happy and less busy life in the future.

We believe that your Presidency will be recorded as a great period in our history. You successfully pulled our nation together by demonstrating that our democratic forms function, that the highest office can be served with absolute integrity, and that through diligence rather than profligacy continuous economic progress can be achieved and its benefits shared throughout our society.

Although I know, from personal experience, that the loss of public office is unpleasant and trying, I do hope that any unhappy feelings you and yours may now hold will soon be transformed, as time gives perspective, to a realization of your immense contribution. Your own awareness of this contribution is more important than public accolades and acclaim.

We hope that we will see you at Larry and Marge Burdick's at Vail when the snows come.

With our deep respect and warmest greetings,

PAUL H. TODD, JR.
