Dear Betty -

I was thrilled to see that you and Susan were going to be in Houston UNTIL I looked at my schedule and realized that I'm going to be in Raleigh, N.C. at a hospital event. Damn it. I'd love to have seen you both.

I knew that Houston will love you both. (Written early in the morning and therefore I seem to be repeating!!)

In any case - welcome to Houston and both Geffe and I hope to see you soon -

Dear Beth and Jerry -

Well- here comes a beautiful picture of you two that came to us and was under our tree. We were thrilled and had you up in our living room next to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth! We were surprised that Marvin and Barbara Davis remembered us, but thought it very nice. Then her really nice letter arrived with an explanation that it was really meant for ^{us} you and she sent us a frame - empty. We liked our full frame and wondered if you'd send a picture of you both to fill our new frame? Please do. Nice that Barbara Davis still has The Carousel Ball and nice that you both still go. Love to all the beautiful Fords - Warmly - Barbara

THE WHITE HOUSE

June 27, 1991

Dear Betty,

George and I so appreciated your lovely letter telling of plans for the tenth anniversary of the Betty Ford Center on Saturday, November 14, 1992. It is hard to believe it could possibly be almost ten years.

In being realistic about it, run or not run, win or lose, I have a feeling that that time period right after the election is going to be a very congested one. Although it breaks my heart to say this, I think you should not count on our being there, but please know we will be with you in spirit.

George joins me in sending our very best wishes,

Warmly,

Barbara

I am so moved by all you have done!

Dear Betty -

You and Jerry were really kind to write, send the marvelous picture and have gifts in our room. The real truth is that both George and I loved being there - seeing what you have done in 20 years - amazing the number of people you have helped, saved and set on the right path. We loved being with Lee and seeing so many dear friends. Lee is a remarkable lady and we love her. This comes with love + Thanks, Barbara
