MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

 PARTICIPANTS:
PRESIDENT FORD
Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, Sec. of State and Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs
Lt. General Brent Scowcroft, Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs
DATE AND TIME:
Thursday, February 20, 1975
11:30 a.m. - 12:17 p.m.

PLACE:

The Oval Office

Kissinger: Ron just nabbed me on the special envoy. We are loading up foreign policy so much that a straw breaks it and then opponents just say they put a straw on it. If we use the special envoy idea to let Brademas go around saying he got me, I am undercut.

The outcome will be so unbrilliant for the Greeks that there is no glory in being associated with it.

I think Mike's original reaction was right. And I can't have your endorsement every day.

President: There is a chance it will leak. If it does, I can say I thought it up and will continue as we have been and we have confidence we can move. The other thing is we can say you are too busy and we want Bruce to take some of the burden.

Kissinger: We can't announce anything today. It would be the wrong signal, and Turkey won't meet anyway. If it leaks, we can say to keep it going we are assigning someone to work with me. I have no problem with Bruce. It's not the negotiation problem, it's the Congressional problem.

Mike's way is the best. Make Brademas fight the whole leadership. This is without prejudice to using Bruce.

CLASSIFIED BY Henry A. Kissinger XEMPT FROM GENERAL DECLASSIFICATION SCHEDULE OF EXECUTIVE ORDER 11652 SCOMPTION CATEGORY 5(b) (1,3) AUTOMATICALLY DECLASSIFIED ON Imp. to det.

President: Why do anything until Congress undoes the damage it has done? It would do no good for anyone to go under these circumstances.

-2-

Kissinger: If we use an envoy as a price for getting a waiver, we are dead, because then they can get anything by making me move aside.

President: I think we should do nothing until Congress straightens itself out. I would get Mahon and Cederburg to move, with the support of the leadership. I will call them and the Speaker and Rhodes to try to get them to act. Then you talk to Dinitz.

Kissinger: McFall told the Vice President that the Jews were using the Turkish problem to keep me off Israel's back. I agree, because it corresponds with what happened when Israel decided to go into delaying actions.

President: Should we tell them what we agreed with Passman?

Kissinger: They are playing a dangerous game. They still have a 40% option of wanting the negotiations to collapse. It is not in the bag. Israel is not signed up. Nor is Sadat. I think Israel won't want to leave the passes for 18 months, even if they agree in principle. We have to keep the Syrians and Soviet Union off our back.

One of the profound concerns abroad is erosion of your and my authority.

If we had had to account for the Israeli-Arab negotiations the way we have with Greek-Turkish, we would have gotten nowhere.

President: Let's try to get it through a continuing resolution. We have time on our side. Let's get Mahon and Cederburg moving as soon as possible with both Leaderships.

Kissinger: You had rejected Shaefer for the UN. For everything?

President: He left the Govenorship and went into business. He resigned after a year with allegations of illegality. That's the only problem.

Kissinger: I have no personal interest in him.

President: He is a friend -- this is the only problem.

Kissinger: Scranton is not rushing for the job -- not that it has been offered.

President: So let's not talk to Scali yet.

SEGRET /NODIS/XGDS

Kissinger: We have told the Indians about Pakistan. I thought we shouldn't raise it with the Leadership. You may catch some hell from the Indians.

Cambodia is sort of disintegrating, regardless of the money. We may have the problem of liquidating Cambodia over the next two weeks.

We also have an Ambassador who has gone wild and is writing for the record.

Giscard gave you wrong information about Hanoi cutting off supplies. He was right about Sihanouk's willingness, but as long as Khmer Communists are winning, there is no incentive to negotiate. I would expect Cambodia not to last past April.

President: If Cambodia gets knocked out of the appropriation, they will certainly collapse. But then it will be the Congress.

What will the Security Council action be on Cyprus? Condemnation?*

Kissinger: We will say we are opposed to unilateral action. The Chinese, who is the Chairman, will agree to keep the Great Powers out. The Soviet Union will try to condemn and get involved.

The Turkish thing is the worst thing we have done since the Suez in '56. Even if we do it, we will suffer for years, even though you and I will be heroes in Turkey. The reaction among the Turkish military is unbelievable.

On CSCE, I think we should move for a summit in early July and a Brezhnev summit in September. You could visit Western Europe before and Eastern Europe after CSCE.

[There was additional discussion of whether additional help is needed. Whatever is needed, under the President's direction. Bruce could be kept available First, the ban aid must be lifted, then we find a medium for continuing negotiations.]
